HAPPENING THIS WEEK

MAX Goes to the Movies (Virtually) Saturday, June 27th, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

This coming weekend marks the 50th Anniversary of Pride. Since we still can't do our monthly movie theater outings we've decided to watch the hit new mini-series "Hollywood" on Netflix that deals in great part with the LGBTQ community in a story about aspiring actors and filmmakers trying to make it in the film industry in the post-World War II “Golden Age” of Hollywood (1947-48). The story – a mixture of fantasy and alleged facts – is based loosely on the 2012 memoir Full Service: My Adventures in Hollywood and the Secret Sex Lives of the Stars, written by Scotty Bowers (with Lionel Friedberg) in which Bowers alleges to have run a service station that doubled as a brothel to the Hollywood elite (both straight and gay) and a gateway to stardom.

Members are invited to watch the show on their own, using their Netflix account, then join us for a discussion about the show, using Zoom, on Saturday, June 27th at 7 p.m. To join the Zoom discussion, you must register on the MAX SF website. Those who register will receive instructions by email on Saturday, June 27th with the Zoom link and login details. The mini-series has seven episodes, each about 50 minutes long.
